We are now considering action to amend our Federal Information Processing Standards to delegate to heads of agencies the authority to approve waivers. Special consideration is being given to the national security concerns you raised.

Pending our review of this matter, if your agency requires a waiver, Department of Commerce personnel possessing appropriate clearances will review the required documentation on your premises. Should you desire such a review, please contact Acting Assistant Secretary for Productivity, Technology and Innovation Robert B. Ellert at 377-5394.
